

LORENE PHILLIPS, PCC

FOUNDER & CHIEF BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT OFFICER

International Coaching & Leadership Institute (ICLI)

Lorene Phillips is the founder of Clarendon Wallace, an executive coaching and leadership consulting firm, and The British School of etiquette, Bermuda, which focuses on developing the social and soft skills of its clients.

Lorene empowers leaders and guides them through the next steps needed to make a meaningful impact in their personal and professional lives.

A Professional Certified Coach (PCC) with the International Coach Federation (ICF), Lorene is also an Executive and Personal Coach with the Coaching Academy, London, and a qualified Business Etiquette Trainer and Facilitator with the British School of Etiquette, London.

An author, speaker, bespoke leadership trainer, and facilitator, Lorene is as authentic as you can get. She is passionate about creating next-generation leaders and thrives in highly visible engagements with high-performing individuals.

Drawing on her 25-year track record of success as a business executive, Lorene walks the talk as an executive and career coach. She engages her global clients in a practical real-world application that gets results that are aligned with the organization mission.

Insightful and attentive, Lorene quickly sees the bigger picture. Clients value her straight talk, depth of real world executive experience, and her passion to engage with and develop next-level leaders.